We cannot know Jesus without knowing his story. Today the debate over who Jesus is rages on. Has the Bible bound Christians to a narrow and mistaken notion of Jesus? Should we listen to other gospels, other sayings of Jesus, that enlarge and correct a mistaken story? Is the real Jesus entangled in a web of the church's Scripture, awaiting liberation from our childhood faith so he might speak to our contemporary pluralistic world? To answer these questions we need to know what story Jesus claimed for himself. Christopher Wright is convinced that Jesus' own story is rooted in the story of Israel. In this revised and updated book he traces the life of Christ as it is illuminated by the Old Testament. And he describes God's design for Israel as it is fulfilled in the story of Jesus.

Christopher J. H. Wright (PhD, Cambridge) is the international director of the Langham Partnership International. He is the author of Old Testament Ethics for the People of God and The Mission of God.

In this action-packed activities book for older children, tweens, and middle schoolers ages 8-12, Mikaela Vincent (author of Delight to Be a Woman of Wonder, and Dare to Be a Man of God) digs deep into the Word to help kids find their identity in Christ, listen to His lead, and walk out in His power to overcome. The crossword puzzles, memory verses, word searches, fun coloring activities, and steps to a closer walk with Christ help plant God's word deep into children's hearts, so they will overcome lies and know the truth that sets them free. Parents, you'll want your own workbook, so you can keep up with what your children are studying. Like one parent said, "Adults need this too!" It could change your life, marriage, walk with God, and the way you parent your children. This unique devotional activity book works great for homeschool Bible curriculum. You can also adjust it to use as the family Bible devotional, if you like. Content is delivered in such a way that you will find the deep truth of the Bible made easy for kids. As they complete the illustrated children's Bible study workbook, watch character developing in them, as they draw near to Christ, learn to listen to His voice, and walk out in what the Bible says, especially in love. Tweens will find out how to have meaningful moments with God through daily quiet times, handle well the problems they face, overcome conflict and bullying, forgive, seek God's healing for issues of their heart, and let Him set them free from fear, pride, selfishness, depression, anxiety, low self-esteem, and other strongholds. This book also includes short lessons to introduce your child to biblical sexuality and remaining pure in talk and actions, as well as how to withstand pressure from social media and peers regarding homosexuality, pornography, and other issues most children now face way too early in life. Also available is an accompanying 1-2-3 Walk in Step with Me Prayer Journal for kids who want to process and practice all the more the steps to walking close with Christ that they're learning in the workbook. Mikaela Vincent writes clean, Pure-As-Gold books for children and teens (and for parents, too!) to help our young warriors today fight for what matters most and prepare for the battles of tomorrow.
