"Flower Therapy" is the art of working with flowers, flower essences, and angels for healing, manifestation, and abundance. With flowers as your allies, your dreams really can come true, and you'll see that nature truly has the ability to heal! In this book, Doreen Virtue and Robert Reeves give in-depth information about 88 common flowers, illustrated with gorgeous, full-color photographs. You'll find out about the flowers' energetic and healing properties, discover which angels are connected to each one, and learn to associate different species with the various chakras (beyond simply categorizing them by color). In addition, there's a loving, channeled message of guidance and support directly from each flower's energy. Doreen and Robert also share with you new and exciting ways to work with Flower Therapy: Create custom bouquets for dear friends. Gather wildflowers to heal and deepen your spirituality. Or choose the perfect blooms for your garden to enhance your connection to the angels. They discuss flower essences, picking fresh blossoms, and purchasing floral arrangements. You'll even be guided through energetic clearing methods and receive detailed instructions about how to perform a Flower Therapy reading. While flowers have an energy that must be experienced, it's not necessary for you to gather any in order to do so. The photos inside, which have been infused with healing energy, are all you need to begin your journey. So, whether you have a green thumb or not, Flower Therapy can start making a difference in your day . . . and bring blessings into your life!

Robert Reeves is a fully qualified and accredited naturopath with an area of interest in mental, emotional, and psychological health. He blends his herbal medicine and nutrition training with his psychic and mediumship abilities to assist his clients in achieving the best possible results. Robert has a strong connection to the angels and to nature, believing that nature holds the ability to heal when one is guided from the Divine. Robert always had a passion for helping others, and this healing instinct developed as a young boy. Luckily, he embraced and sought to develop his spiritual and intuitive abilities. He was constantly guided to continue learning more and more about natural healing and how he could connect to his intuition at a deeper level. By 15 years of age, Robert was an audience member at spiritual workshops, and by age 17 he had three certificates of qualification under his belt. Since then he has continued to be involved in the natural-health industry and now teaches workshops on various self-help topics. He writes regular articles for Australian magazines and has been featured on international radio programs. Robert has also developed a range of vibrational essences that focus on crystal and angel energy and are currently available as aura sprays. Robert owns and runs a successful natural-therapies clinic that he began when he was 17 years old. For more information, please visit his website: www.robertreeves.com.au.
