Historical fiction is my passion. I so love bringing history to life - the reason I dedicate most of my time to writing historical fiction books! Spring Will Come is the third book in the ongoing Bregdan Chronicles historical novel series. It's readers like you who have turned it into a world-wide best-seller. Thank you!

Book Description: As her beloved city of Richmond is transformed into a deadly Civil War battlefield, spirited Carrie Cromwell puts her medical skills to work in a Confederate hospital. While she fights to save unknown soldiers, the one she cares about the most is lost to her when Robert disappears in battle. She must also deal with a family secret that has finally come to light.

Meanwhile, Rose and Moses have found freedom at last - only to be separated by war. Can Moses, now a Union spy, elude those who are searching for him as a runaway slave, and also help those he thought he would never see again? Rose, inspired by a revolutionary young speaker, becomes a teacher in the contraband camps.

The third book of The Bregdan Chronicles historical fiction series will pull you in and never let you go. You'll experience the Civil War era (and all the years to come) through the eyes of both White and Black, free & slave, Southern & Northern - and you'll fall in love with every character.

How many books will be in the Bregdan Chronicles? You'll have to ask God about that...I intend to write these character's stories, one year at a time, for as long as I'm able to write. I'm passionate about bringing history to life through historical fiction. Since I'm amazingly healthy, that could be for a very long time! I don't like stories to end any more than you do. This one won't end for a very long time!

Review: This review is actually for all six books in the Bregdan Chronicles written by Ginny Dye. I smiled, I cried, I hoped along with everyone. This was a series I was glad to be reading on Kindle because I could easily pull a map, or research one of the locations, or Chimborazo Hospital where Janie and Carrie gave their time. The books are a perfect blend of history, and the representation of what the people of that time may have suffered and lived through. I just finished number 6 and will not comment in case someone hasn't read it. What I will say is "Glimmer of Change" #7 are you ready to be read, or still in process? Thank you for sharing your gift with us.

Review: I have finished book 3 and can hardly wait to start book 4! the characters are so real, the historical events are so captivating, the moral values and reality of what happened to our country during the civil war - make for excellent reading. This is historical fiction at its best - a 5 star book!

Ginny would love to get to know every single person who reads her books. Since that isn't possible she can at least let you get to know her a little. Born in North Carolina, she is a wanderer at heart. She has lived all over the United States, exploring every state and having wonderful adventures along the way. She has managed horse ranches in Texas and Oregon; worked with teenagers all over the country (she love them!), and has hiked, biked, rafted and played in every locale she could.

She loves all the beaches, deserts, woods, and mountains she has traveled through but when she discovered Washington, she discovered home. Her heart is at home there with the snow covered mountains; the glistening waters of the Pacific; the eagles and Orca whales; the towering fir trees surrounding her home; and the miles of trails on her own Magic Mountain.

Everywhere she looks inspires her to be all she can be - to follow and achieve all the dreams of her heart! She managed to write and publish 16 books along the way. She enjoys writing many different genres but admits Historical Fiction is her favorite. She is quite sure she will never live long enough to write all her heart and mind holds, but she certainly intends to try!

She is also the Founder of I Am A Voice In The World. This fabulous organization is committed to creating a world-wide community of people with a passion to make a difference and live their best life - using the multitude of FREE resources provided.

Her life will forever be a journey. She knows she will never get to the place where she thinks she has "arrived". The more she learns - the more she knows she doesn't know! Yet, what joy she receives by sharing the light she has... She would love to hear from you at BregdanChronicles.net

Conclusion: Author Bio Publisher Introduction Look deep into nature, and then you will understand everything better~ Albert Einstein *** Spring: Spring is a wonderful season with lots of bright colors and warm sunlight! It starts in the month of March. For three months, planet earth is full of new leaves, beautiful flowers, and lots of new life. The air smells fresh and clean and many children love to play games in the bright green grass. What about you? Do you like to play in the bright green grass? You might think of spring with the bright sun shining all the time. But spring is not just full of sunshine. There is lots of rain too! The day might be nice and warm but in some parts of the world at nighttime, it might get a little windy and cool. Rain is very important in springtime. Do you know why? Rainy days helps plants to grow much better! And when the plants grow better they will have lots of pretty green leaves. The rain also helps other trees to grow big and strong and it helps the flowers stay bright with nice perfume!

? ? ? ? ? . The idea is that the first day of spring should be 12 hour or daylight and 12 hours of night light but this doesn't always ... It is said if the groundhog does not see his shadow when he comes out of his burrow, spring will come early."
