Originally published under the General Editorship of Thomas H. Greer, the series emanated from the Humanities Department of Michigan State University. The books remain today perhaps the best sources available for the comprehensive study in one volume of every subject area which might be included in the umbrella of humanities. Most major literary forms are represented: essay, poem, short story, play, novel, memoir, epigram, scientific discourse, philosophical treatise, political manifesto, and religious proclamation. All major subject areas are explored: art, music, education, mathematics, biology, psychiatry, religion, philosophy, politics, economics, and physics. The informative apparatus, headnotes, and footnotes are all aimed at enhancing the student-reader's comprehension.

Other Books

Evolutionize: Light and Voice, Evolutionize: Light and Voice, is a book written with the strength of hope, with the love that transcends time, and with the appreciation for all life. This book is divided in two sections of poetry and prose. In his second book, poet Oscar R. Rocha, masterfully blends words and sentences to represent the natural equalities and human perceptions we all share. The book is about finding the truth about ourselves in times of adversity, in times of joy, and in times of love. It is a diverse celebration of dancing together to the beats of our individual DNA, sharing, rejoicing, drumming together our uniqueness, all together as one, all together blessed.
