Offering a diverse variety of perspectives, Exploring Family Theories, Fourth Edition, is a combined text/reader that integrates theory with research and applications. In each chapter, Suzanne R. Smith and Raeann R. Hamon present the history, scholarship, and critiques of one principal family theory in a concise manner. Numerous examples and illustrations augment and clarify content, while application questions help students relate these theories to the real world. After each chapter, a follow-up journal article exemplifies how that particular theory is used to guide actual research.

Suzanne R. Smith

is Associate Professor of Human Development at Washington State University Vancouver.

Raeann R. Hamon

is Distinguished Professor of Family Science and Gerontology and Chair of the Human Development and Family Science Department at Messiah College.

"This is the best family theory textbook on the market. It is thorough and balanced, and includes parallel empirical articles for undergraduate and graduate students. Plus, it is written by some of the leaders in our field."--Tyler M. Smith, Baylor University

"Exploring Family Theories offers a comprehensive approach to the study of the family that I like very much. The authors' writing style is excellent and the topics are clearly explained in a way that is accessible for undergraduate students."--Jean Dawson, Franklin Pierce University

"This book provides an excellent foundation for understanding family theories. It effectively discusses and reviews family theory concepts and assumptions."--Anthony Walker, Indiana State University

Other Books

Cultural Diversity and Families, Cultural Diversity and Families: Expanding Perspectives breaks new ground by investigating how concepts of cultural diversity have shaped the study of families from theoretical and applied perspectives. Authors Bahira Sherif Trask and Raeann R. Hamon move the dialogue about culturally diverse families to a new level by topically discussing the issues affecting culturally diverse families rather than organizing the information by racial and or ethnic groups.
