Harley Brown offers artists his "truths" for painting success--the stuff he hopes they teach in art school. A well-established artist, Brown has gained a large following with his frank, no-nonsense approach to teaching art. Twelve knock-out chapters include:

- * What every artist should do first. Harley's own cheap and dirty way to start a painting
- * Composition--who needs it? See why most paintings are boring. And why a few will knock your socks off.
- * Working with color. Stay miles ahead of the person who skips this chapter!
- * Going on from here. Your greatest obstacle isn't skill...it's attitude.
- * Plus, 30 magic solutions to common problems, 15 things to leave out of a painting, 24 painting sins and much more!

Supplementing Brown's advice are more than 10 step-by-step painting demonstrations in oil and pastel. His unique offerings are sure to enlighten and entertain painters of all skill levels and backgrounds.

"The essence of what he has learned from about his thousands of students and the way they learn is contained in these pages. Recognized as one of the most accomplished artists in his field." This is the book I would have wanted to learn from. One of my colleagues remarked: "You've given out all the 'secrets,' you might just as well retire!" Another said: "This book would have saved me years of struggle." It's gratifying to know that my book has already made quite a difference with so many artists. It's all here for the taking.
