Cheryl Henson, daughter of Muppets founder Jim Henson, along with the Muppet' Workshop (and Kermit the Frog), shows kids how to make over 35 puppets using stuff from around the house-with a little help from the googly eyes, funny noses, feathers, and fuzzy fur included. There's Dixie Dragon (principle ingredient, a sock), Jughead (small plastic jar), Spidey Jones (old work glove), Metalmouth (bandage boxes), Princess Esterrilla (wooden spoon and chopsticks), and Pinky Roach (pink eraser). In addition, the authors show how to talk the puppet talk and walk the puppet walk, how to write a script and put on a show. It's a complete kit. Just add glue, and a little imagination. Selection of the Book-of-the-Month Club. 152,000 copies in print.

Now you can make puppets right at home out of materials from around your house-an old work glove, empty paper-towel tubes, that meatballer in the kitchen drawer no one ever uses. With the enclosed feathers and fur to get started, it's easy to create a whole cast of sweet, scary, weird characters. Discover the secrets of eyes, become a hair expert, develop the right nose-or beak-for a face. Then learn how to walk the puppet walk and talk the puppet talk.

With tips on scripts, stages, and shows, it's a complete puppeteering guide. Just add your imagination.

The Muppet Workshop is the magical place where original Muppet characters are created by a staff of talented designers and builders. The Workshop has created hundreds of Muppet puppets over the last 30 years.
