Reid, When Tara first sees Reid Davenport with his chiseled jaw and aristocratic features, he strikes her as a mystery man—a mystery she'd like to unravel. But it's only a brief encounter in a hotel lobby, it's not like she'll ever see him again. He's probably there for some high-powered business meeting, she's only there for a special treat massage at the spa. Then she discovers who he is; the lesser known Davenport brother. Author, programmer—recluse. At least that's how the media portrays him. She's about to find out that there's a whole lot more to him than that. Reid can't believe his luck when he runs into the sexy redhead and her son for the second time. There's something about her—something that makes him feel in ways he didn't know he was capable of. He wants to date her, to explore those feelings, and to get to know her and her little boy. Tara doesn't date, she doesn't have the time or the energy, since her life is devoted to her son, Owen. Owen is special. To her, he's the most special little boy in all the world; but to the rest of the world, he's considered "special needs." Reid understands just how special Owen is; he doesn't just understand, he can relate. Get your copy now, and you'll laugh and cry as you follow these three on their journey to becoming a family.
