Fourteen-year-old Francis is heading west in a wagon train on the Oregon Trail when he's kidnapped by Pawnees. His adventures during the two-year search for his family teach him how to live by the harsh code of the wilderness, and give readers an exciting panoramic vision of the West at a time of settlement and of war with Mexico. Along the way, Francis meets up with Mr. Grimes, a one-armed mountain man, and later rescues Lottie and Billy, children abandoned on the prairie. Together the three encounter bandits, soldiers, storms, eccentric travellers, and discover an ancient treasure. But the real treasure lies at the end of the trail-Tucket's home.

Gary Paulsen is the author of more than 100 books and the winner of numerous awards, including three Newbery Honors and the Golden Spur Award for Best Young Adult Western.

Other Books

Corners Untouched by Madness, N. Daniel exposes his soul and struggle with mental health in this journey of redemption. The main character, Daniel, has taken a mundane job in the suburbs of the Twin Cities, making his life like anyone else. When a woman from his past reappears, it ignites a chain reaction, setting him on a journey to confront his troubled history. Daniel bares his pain and internal struggle through humor, passion, and a lesson in perseverance. This both a story of redemption and of apology to those he has hurt.
